

Notes for In-training Course for McGill School of Ed., circa 1952-53, original in own hand

Art has nothing to prove but the transcending existence of beauty so recalling man to his spiritual vocation -

Modern Painting will find its way back to the classics which it resembles.